

Pacific ICT Days 2015 to be hosted in Port Vila next month

DESPITE THE CYCLONE PAM disaster, the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer (OGCIO) is happy to announce that the Pacific ICT Days conference will still be maintained on the scheduled dates of 15th and 16th of May 2015 at Warwick Le Lagon Conference Centre.

OGCIO will join other members of the International Telecommunications Union (ITU) to celebrate ITU's

150th anniversary and World Telecommunication & Information Society Day (WTISD) 2015 theme;

"Telecommunication & ICTs: Drivers of Innovation.

"ICT Days 2015 remains a free and open event for all – ICT hemi blong evriwan!"

The conference will provide an environment and a platform for delegates as well as visitors, technology providers and specialists to come together and share experiences, discuss latest technologies advances, address key issues and challenges and explore new business opportunities within the telecommunications industry.

It will be the opportunity to reinforce relationships among all players of the ICT ecosystem, including public administrations, private sector companies, entrepreneurs, non-for profits, as well as all the people living in the Pacific.
